

CENTER FOR ACCESSIBILITY SERVICES AND ACADEMIC ACCOMMODATIONS FACULTY INFORMATION

The Center for Accessibility Services and Academic Accommodations works closely with faculty to ensure each students success at AIC. CASAA can provide support to faculty in the following ways:

- Ability to attend departmental meetings to collaborate about general accommodations for students with disabilities
- Provide information about disabilities and potential impact on the college environment
- Provide direction for incorporating universal design principles to mitigate obstacles for all types of learners
- Consultation regarding specific students who may be struggling who you suspect may have undiagnosed learning disabilities
- Ability to participate in a scheduled meeting with a student to assist in resolving challenging situations
- As a resource for issues or questions involving accommodating students with disabilities in the college setting

Faculty are always welcome to call the Center for Accessibility Services and Academic Accommodations at any time at 205-3810 with questions, concerns or ideas.
