Statement of Philosophy

The function of the academic library is to support the curriculum and provide the resources that will offer students and faculty the opportunity to explore topics in depth. Occasionally, objections to some library resources will be made despite the quality of the selection process. Because we believe that all patrons should have the opportunity to express their concerns about materials that they may consider offensive, a procedure has been instituted to address these challenges.

In providing service to our patrons, our library holds to the principles incorporated in the United States Constitution and in particular the First Amendment. This specifically states that, “Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech, or press; or the right of the people peaceably to assemble, and to the petition, and to petition the Government for a redress of grievances”.

The American Library Association’s “Bill of Rights”, which addresses these principles in the context of library activity, accompanies the Collection Development policy. Shea Library subscribes to the ALA’s “Bill of Rights”.
Procedure for the Reconsideration of Materials

The Library Committee has established the following procedures for challenges that patrons may bring to the retention of items in the collection.

1) One or more patrons (Complainants) may ask that an item or items be removed from the collection due to the nature or treatment of a subject.
2) Such a challenge may be informally resolved by discussion with the Library Director.
3) When informal resolution is unsuccessful or inappropriate, the complainant must fill out a written complaint form. (See Reconsideration of Materials form.)
4) The Library Committee will review the complaint and review the materials in question.
5) The Executive Vice President of Academic Affairs (EVPAA) will be notified of the Library Committee’s decision.
6) The EVPAA may choose to review the matter.
7) The complainant will be informed of the decision of the Library Committee and, if necessary, the EVPAA.

Removing Challenged Materials from the Collection

No duly selected materials whose appropriateness is challenged shall be removed from the library collection except upon the recommendation of the Library Committee with the concurrence of the Executive Vice President of Academic Affairs.
Detailed Procedures to be Observed

- All complaints to library staff shall be reported to the Library Director.
- The Library Director shall contact the complainant to discuss the complaint and attempt to resolve in informally.
- If the complaint is not resolved informally, the complainant shall be provided with a copy of the Collection Development Policy, the policy for challenging materials in the library collection, and a Reconsideration of Materials form.
- If the Director of the Library has not received the formal request for consideration within two (2) weeks, the matter shall be considered closed.
- In accordance with the Statement of Philosophy, no questioned materials shall be removed from the library pending a final decision.
- Upon completion and submission of the Reconsideration of Materials form by the complainant, the Library Director shall ask the Chairman of the Library Committee to call the members together to discuss the materials in question. This review should be conducted within two weeks of the submission of the form.
- The committee shall meet to discuss the materials challenged, following the guidelines set forth in Instructions for Reviewing Reconsideration of Materials.
- The Director of the library shall notify the complainant of the decision and send a formal report and recommendation to the Executive Vice President of Academic Affairs (EVPAA). In answering the complainant, the Director shall explain the material selection system, give the guidelines used for selection, and cite the authorities used reaching the decisions. If the Committee decides to keep the work that has caused the complaint, the complainant shall be given an explanation. If the complaint is upheld, the director shall acknowledge it and make recommended changes.
- If the complainant is still not satisfied, he or she may ask the EVPAA to present an appeal to the President and Board of Trustees, which shall make a final determination of the issue. The President and Board of Trustees may seek assistance from outside organizations such as the American Library Association and legal counsel in making its decision.
Instructions for Reviewing Reconsidered Material

- Bear in mind the principles of academic freedom, the United States Constitution, and the American Library Association’s “Bill of Rights”, and base your decision on these guidelines when reviewing the matter. Freedom of inquiry is vital to education in a democracy. The Bill of Rights can be found at http://www.ala.org/advocacy/intfreedom/librarybill.

- Study thoroughly all materials referred to you and read all available reviews. The general acceptance of the materials should be checked by consulting standard evaluation aids.

- Passages or parts should not be pulled out of context. The values and faults should be weighed together and the opinions of the material based on the materials as a whole.

- The Library Director will present your report, presenting both majority and minority opinions to the complainant at the conclusion of your discussion of the questioned material.
