AIC Student Organizations:

PLUS | AIC

The purpose of PLUS shall be to bring people of every sexuality and gender together at American International College. This will then create a safe/brave place to socialize, build friendships, support one another, encourage open-mindedness, and promote diversity within the American International College. This organization will also be a space to help fight for racial, gender, and sexual orientation justice.

Office of Diversity, Equity, Inclusion & Belonging | AIC

The Office of Diversity, Equity, Inclusion & Belonging is committed to building a culturally diverse and inclusive campus that embraces all dimensions of human identity. We strive to cultivate a community that supports, empowers, and educates through dialogue, mentoring, programming, and training. ODEIB also works to provide all students a safe and inclusive space for individual development, interpersonal growth, and conversation.

Persons Ready in Defense of Ebony | AIC

P.R.I.D.E is the oldest student-run organization at AIC, founded on October 18, 1968. The mission of PRIDE is to ensure that we, the Persons, are always Ready to Defend Ebony. This organization creates a space for all students to come together and bring awareness to the social struggles, the triumphs, and the history of Black people. We design and curate events to curate a strong Black community at AIC. We also include and welcome those with intersecting identities, as their voices are often excluded from these spaces.

Student of Color Working Group | AIC

Black & Brown student-led advocacy group that creates dialogue and action on campus to support our BIPOC students further. These students work to advocate, recognize, and truly support BIPOC students through purposeful & thoughtful events & programs.
